Advanced Practice Providers (FNP/PA)

New Mexico Medical (NMM) is a busy Family Practice and Urgent Care located 10-20 minutes East of Albuquerque, NM. NMM is a service-oriented practice and offers a wide variety of patients with acute and chronic medical needs.

Minimum Qualifications:

Family Nurse Practitioner or Physician Assistant with two (2) years working experience preferred, and licensed by the New Mexico Nursing Board, New Mexico Board of Medical Examiners, or Osteopathic Board required.

For Nurse Practitioner - Masters degree in Nursing, New Mexico Nurse Practitioner license, and AANP or ANCC certification required. Minimum of one-year experience in primary care clinic setting preferred. FNP Required, or dually certified ANP/PNP. New Mexico Controlled Substance License and Federal DEA License required.

For Physician Assistant – Masters preferred, Baccalaureate accepted, prepared CAHEA Certified and NCCPA. New Mexico Controlled Substance License and Federal DEA License required.

Primary Job Functions:

Summary of Primary Functions

Makes all professional medical judgments in the care of patients seen.

Manages the provider/patient relationship.

Participates in system wide health management initiatives.

Maintain coding and encounter data standards for completeness, accuracy, timeliness and reimbursement level, including legible documentation.

Adheres to all provider credentialing and QI standards.

Be conscientious about the meaningful clinical practice of patients, and service quality performance; budget; capital plan; and personnel issues.

Assists in the development and implementation of clinical and service standards.

Receives and resolves patient complaints.

Participates in the recruitment and replacement of other providers.

Enhances professional growth and development through occasional participation in educational programs, literature review, in-services, and workshops. Attends periodic meetings to discuss continued development and educational competencies.

Primary health care providers, emphasize health promotion and disease prevention, including Vaccines for Children program.

Manage acute and chronic diseases.

Order, conduct and interpret appropriate diagnostic x-ray and lab tests.

Prescribe treatments medications and non-pharmacologic therapies.

Involved in teaching and counseling individuals, families and groups.

Works autonomously as well as collaboratively with other health care providers as needed.

Serve as health care resources, interdisciplinary consultants and patient advocate.

Performs other functions as required