Physicians (DO/MD)

Minimum Skills/Requirements:

M.D./D.O. Board-eligible or certified in Family Medicine or Internal Medicine. State of New Mexico Medical License required. Completion of a three-year residency in family medicine preferred. Two or more years of practice experience preferred. New Mexico Controlled Substance License and Federal DEA License required.

Primary Job Functions:

Summary of Primary Functions

Makes all professional medical judgments in the care of patients seen.

Manages the provider/patient relationship.

Participates in system wide health management initiatives.

Attends and participates in a variety of meetings and conferences as requested

Provides feedback to PCPs regarding clinical and operational guidelines to optimize patient care and clinical efficiency.

Maintain coding and encounter data standards for completeness, accuracy, timeliness and reimbursement level., including legible documentation

Adheres to all provider credentialing and QI standards.

Be conscientious about the practice site's financial, clinical, and service quality performance; budget; capital plan; and personnel issues.

Assists in the development and implementation of clinical and service standards.

Receives and resolves patient complaints.

Participates in the recruitment and replacement of other providers.

Enhances professional growth and development through participation in educational programs, literature review, in-services, and workshops.
Attends periodic meetings to discuss continued development and educational competencies.
Performs other functions as required.

Primary health care providers, emphasizes health promotion and disease prevention, including Vaccines for Children program.

Manage acute and chronic diseases.

Order, conduct and interpret appropriate diagnostic x-ray and lab tests.

Prescribe treatments medications and non-pharmacologic therapies.

Involved in teaching and counseling individuals, families and groups.

Works autonomously as well as collaborate with other health care providers as needed.

Serve as health care resources, interdisciplinary consultants and patient advocate.

Performs other functions as required.